

ARTHUR ZARR'S AMAZING ART CAR is about a quiet man with a plain car and a plain life. When he gets a creative idea to start adding objects to his car's plain exterior, the people in his town start noticing Arthur for the first time. Neighbors join him by adding their own artistic flair to the car. Mr. Zarr finds happiness and makes friends by building an amazing art car! (Ages 4-9+)

Book includes a "History of Art Cars" page for readers unfamiliar with this creative form of expression!

"This tale's light humor and unexpected premise will encourage empathy and appreciation for artistic flights of fancy." — Kirkus Reviews

"A profound message about living creatively, finding community, and connecting to the world." — Paige Duke, Editor
